FOI 486/23-24

17 November 2023

[REDACTED]

I refer to your email dated 14 November 2023 in which you asked for information. Your request has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Freedom of Information Act 2000

The Freedom of Information Act creates rights of access for any person making a request for information to a public authority. The rights of access are twofold. First, to be informed by the public authority if it holds information of the description specified in the request, and if that is the case, secondly, to be provided with that information. These rights are subject to important limitations, which are designed to achieve a proper balance between the right to know and considerations of law and policy in the broader public interest.

You had asked the following:

“Under the Freedom of Information Act I am requesting, has any Prosecutor been held accountable regarding malfeasance of office, or non-disclosure/conflict of interest with anyone in the PPS in the last 5 years.

Has any prosecutor been sanctioned for actions contrary to PPS legislation regarding, conduct of malfeasance in public office?

Please do not hesitate to contact me on this email should any aspect of my request require clarification”.

In response, please be advised the PPS does not hold this information. Therefore, in terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I can confirm that under Section 1(1) (a) of the Act the PPS does not hold the requested information.

You may wish to contact NICS HR Employee Relations who may be able to assist.

Independent, fair and effective

If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review in accordance with our review procedure. You should do this as soon as possible or in any case within two months of the date of this response and you can do so by writing to the Head of Policy and Information, Public Prosecution Service, Belfast Chambers, 93 Chichester Street, BELFAST, BT1 3JR or alternatively by sending an e-mail to info@ppsni.gov.uk. You should state clearly the grounds on which you are requesting the review.

Alternatively, you may wish to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
